Featuring the Opryland Hotel Country Christmas November 18 - 21, 2010

NOVEMBER 18, 2010: THURSDAY

Get ready for a great 4 day adventure specially written for the Silver Key Society to usher in the blessings of the Christmas Season. Our motor-coach departs this morning with our Integrity Travel Tour Director on board to point out interesting sights along the way. Our travels take us through the Prairie State of Illinois on through Indiana to our 1st over-night stop in Louisville, Kentucky. After check in we're off to enjoy a great meal and live show at the Derby Dinner Theater. Tonight's performance—Plaid Tiding finds the Forever Plaid group gift wrapped for the holiday season, as they say this is one holiday treat that is truly heaven sent. (D)

NOVEMBER 19, 2010; FRIDAY

After breakfast this morning we head south through the rolling hills of Kentucky with a late morning arrival in the Music Capital of America—Nashville, Tennessee. Our first stop will be the Country Music Hall of Fame located in the heart of downtown. Our admission ticket allows us to see all of the memorabilia of country stars past and present; names like Loretta Lynn, Johnny Cash, Conway Twitty, Reba McEntyre and more give us an enlightened view of their personal stories of success. Mid afternoon finds us heading to the Opryland Hotel, our home for the next two nights. After check in and some time to get the lay of the land we'll head back to the downtown area for a tasty dinner and a live performance of the Grand Ole Opry. During the Christmas Season the Opry returns to the Ryman Auditorium so we are in for a special treat. (B,D)
