AUGUST 7, 2010: SATURDAY

We depart Eastern Iowa aboard our deluxe motor-coach this morning reserved exclusively for the Silver Key Club. Our Integrity Travel Tour Director will be on board to point out the interesting sights as our travels take us through Southwestern Wisconsin on to the city of Eau Claire. Upon arrival we'll enjoy the Paul Bunyan Logging Camp, a re-created 1890's logging camp. Artifacts are displayed in the cook shanty, bunkhouse, barn, smithy and shed. The Interpretive Center introduces us to the logging industry and the history of the forest. We'll also take time to visit the Chippewa Valley Museum before checking into our hotel. This evening we attend a wonderful dinner theater to enjoy some great food and fantastic entertainment. (D)

AUGUST 8, 2010: SUNDAY

Breakfast starts our day off right before we venture north through the beautiful lake country to the shores of Lake Superior. Upon arrival we board the ferry to Madeline Island, the largest of the Apostle Islands. Madeline has a permanent population of fewer than 200 residents and our guided tour will show us the history from the French explorers of the 1650's, the life and times of the American Indians and much more. Late afternoon finds us ferrying back to the mainland where we check into our deluxe hotel for the night. This evening we'll enjoy a delicious dinner together. (B,D)
